

Legacy Robin Dickinson

It was at the 6th or 7th mile in '97 and I was a younger runner. The route took us up Hill Street at around mile 9 and I was beginning to feel sorry for myself. 9 miles in and 17 more to go. As I ran up the hill I noticed a disabled runner with a wide smile on his face. I said "what am I feeling sorry for". It inspired me to run a good race. My name is Robin Dickinson and I have the unique honor of being the only non-American to be a Legacy Runner. I live in Vancouver B.C.. I have ran all LA races in rain, hail, heat and wind.

I am 51 years old and I am a culinary arts teacher in a high school in Vancouver. I have ran 67 marathons (LA 68)!! I have recently remarried to a Chinese women with a 20 year old son. I am very happy. Her and her son are now Canadian.
